

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, more than four million members of the Girl Scouts of the United States of America, by the daily living of their promise to do their duty to God and Country, to help other people at all times, and to obey the Girl Scout laws of loyalty, honesty, courtesty, cheerfulness, usefulness, kindness and thrift, in turn enrich the communities in which they live, and;

WHEREAS, Girl Scouts of the U. S. A. has set its theme for the triennium, "Awareness... Action" and;

WHEREAS, within this theme Girl Scouts now beginning their 58th year, reflect their involvement in the needs of the world;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FRANK L. FARRAR, Governor of the State of South Dakota, by virtue of the authority vested in me, hereby proclaim March 8th through the 14th of this year 1970 as-- in South Dakota, and March 8th as the 58th anniversary of the founding of Girl Scouting in the United States of America. I, therefore, call upon all citizens to give the Girl Scouts now and in the coming year their continued interest and support.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota this 6th day of March, in the Year of our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy.
